About this time last year, somebody thoughtfully decorated Stoney Lane with a lovely snow-white radiator. This year they are obviously thinking about me being that much older than I was last year - somebody has kindly left a mattress there in case I get tired when I am out with my dog. All I have to do is just unroll it and I can have a quiet undisturbed sleep!

Seriously - WHY? WHY? WHY? do people have to dump their bags of garden rubbish, bags of cement that have hardened, old empty oil containers and all the other types of rubbish that they are TOO LAZY to dispose of correctly. I'm sure that I am not the only one who is incensed by the amount of fly tipping that goes on. I enjoy walking my dog - please do not spoil my enjoyment of the beautiful countryside.
