

Lewannick, Polyphant & Trevadlock Newsletter

From the Editor:

I hope you all had a great Christmas and I wish you a wonderful 2009. Apologies for the lateness of the newsletter - this is due to the Christmas closure of the reprographics department.

Unfortunately I have been nursing a compound fracture of the ankle and during the last few weeks my leg has been in plaster, so I've been pretty much housebound. The plaster's off now and I'm getting reacquainted with my leg and "learning" to walk again with crutches.

It's Panto time again! The Lewannick Amateur Dramatic Society is presenting their 60th Annual Pantomime, the Sword in the Stone, so please book your tickets as soon as possible to avoid disappointment. (See advert on this page). Please support this wonderful tradition in Lewannick.

I received an email from a lady in Australia trying to trace her husband's ancestors who originated from Lewannick. If anyone can help more details are included in the newsletter.

The second Spring Flower Show will be taking place in March so start pampering your plants!

Helena

Polyphant Christmas Bazaar Success

The Christmas Bazaar held at Polyphant Community Hall recently was a great success and made £650 towards the upkeep of the hall. It was a wonderful afternoon and so well attended. We would like to thank all the helpers and to everyone who came, and also those who made such generous donations.

Happy New Year to you all
Di Greenfield

Can Anyone Help?

Pauline Turner in Australia is trying to get in touch with anyone who can help trace some information on her husband's ancestors who were married in Lewannick in 1837. They were James Turner, born 1813, and Mary Rousevell probably from the Rousevell family farm and both lived in Landunna at the time. They emigrated to Australia in late 1837.

Even if no-one knows of this family Pauline and her husband would love to receive some information about Landunna in particular and Lewannick in general. Their son will be in England in the new year and he is particularly interested in tracing the "Turner" ancestry. If anyone can help please contact Pauline Turner, email: olinda120@hotmail.com
